

STAFFING AND HR SOLUTIONS

Increasing the return on your human capital investment

Drake International is a global HR Services company and a leader in sustainable HR practice and talent management. For over 58 years, Drake has been helping companies find, win and keep the best talent.

Drake's performance management suite of innovative HR solutions can be customised for your organisation to assist in improving performance and profitability through recruitment, retention and the development of future leaders and dynamic corporate cultures.

Our purpose in business is simple – helping our clients outperform their targets, shareholders' expectations and their competitors.

Drake's business divisions touch every job role and human resources management service line. These divisions include:

- Drake Overload: provision of temporary office staff including short and long term secretarial; clerical and administrative staff.
- Drake Industrial: provision of staff covering the trade and technical skills in sectors such as manufacturing, engineering, warehousing and distribution.
- Drake Personnel: the provision of permanent roles across all job sectors. From secretarial, clerical and office support staff.
- Drake Executive: sourcing executive talent in key management roles across finance and accounting; information technology; human resources; general management and technical roles.
- Drake Medox: covering every facet of the health and medical sector. From the provision of nurses and clinical professionals through to administrative staff.

“Each Drake solution is as unique as the client for whom it is designed. However all solutions share one common trait – they are backed by our longstanding dedication to providing our clients with measurable results”

Bill Pollock
Chairman
Drake International

- Vertical Talent: the provision of permanent roles across the procurement and supply, and mortgage services vertical markets.
- Drake Solutions: provision of a range of products, technologies, applications and solutions that touch every aspect of workforce management, human resource management, retention programs and workforce productivity
- Drake Training: a Registered Training Organisation providing certification and accreditation programs related to information management and technology, business, professional development and administration
- Drake WorkWise: leading provider of Organisational Consulting, Psychological Interventions and Occupational Health and Safety Services in the Australian market.

Contact us to find out how we can help your organisation realise its potential.

www.drakeintl.com

13 14 48